Program Construct

The program curriculum revolves around 8 essential personas essential for an HR leader in the AI world!

The Impact Player

Leverages AI-powered analytics to connect HR initiatives to measurable business outcomes, translating AI adoption into quantifiable ROI through revenue, retention, and productivity metrics.

The Culture Curator

Applies AI-driven sentiment analysis, pulse checks, and predictive models to identify engagement risks early, uncover hidden leadership patterns, and shape high-performance cultures proactively.

The Experience Expert

Harnesses AI to design and deliver personalized employee experiences at scale—tailoring onboarding, learning, benefits, and career journeys to individual needs, preferences, and contexts across the entire workforce.

The Connection Creator

Connects the dots across employee data using AI—analyzing patterns across diverse segments to deliver personalized, timely insights that reach the right people at the right time.

The Solution Seeker

Experiments with AI tools to solve HR challenges—rapidly prototyping solutions and simulating dashboards and workflows to address organizational needs.

The Strategy Shaper

Builds workforce plans using AI that match business strategy—mapping skill adjacencies and forecasting capability needs to keep HR at the center of strategic decisions.

The Talent Tracker

Predicts talent movement, readiness for advancement, and emerging skill gaps using AI—enabling action before challenges arise.

The Risk Radar

Identifies and manages AI-related risks—detecting bias in algorithms, masking sensitive data for privacy, and guiding responsible AI tool usage while ensuring checks and validation are in place before any critical actions are executed.

What's NEW

HR50under50 differs from traditional executive leadership programs in the way prepares HR leaders to shape the AI powered future of work!

> Master Classes on Real AI Implementations

Go beyond hype with real life case studies of organizations already embedding AI across the HR spectrum — from talent identification to employee engagement.

> Coffee Connects: Peer-to-Peer Ideation

Brainstorm AI-led solutions with fellow participants. Translate case study lessons into practical applications for your own organization.

> Exclusive Peer & Alumni Network

Join a community of aspirational HR leaders under 50 who will benefit from learning & collaborating with one another as much as they will from the curriculum.

> Recognition + Growth

This isn't just a learning journey — it's a badge of credibility. A recognition that says: You are among the HR leaders driving the AI adoption in HR.
